Some of Sydney's legendary chefs including Peter Evans of Hugo's, Armando Percuoco of Buon Ricordo and Tetsyua will take part in a chef's crab eating competition. It's a fun filled afternoon where the Chefs have to devour a whole mud crab in a certain time obeying the crab eating rules. The chefs can incur demerit points and will be fined for infractions of the rules. Justice Donald Stewart has been asked to oversee the proceedings and Justin Miller has agreed to be our auctioneer.

Funds are raised by auctioning off the right to 'back' a crab eating chef and a range of other items including prizes donated by the participating chefs.

Guests will dine on food prepared by Peter Evans and enjoy fine wines donated by Oatley wines, Hahn Beer and San Pelligrino.

Master of ceremonies will be Ms Deborah Hutton.

We will be holding a number of fundraising activities during the event to raise some additional money.

The Victor Chang Christmas Crabfest will be held at Inglis Stables, Young Street Randwick on December 6 commencing at 12 noon. Numbers are limited. Tickets are $200 all inclusive
